Your Questions

- What time are the classes?

Classes take place from Mondays to Thursdays usually between 9:00 and 16:00 UK time and Fridays between 9:00 and 14:15.

- How long is each class?

Most classes are 50 minutes in length. Some group sessions are 60 minutes long.

- Are all classes face-to-face at EJEF?

While many classes are face-to-face, other course modules are currently being delivered online. You can study online classes from your classroom at EJEJF.

- How much homework will I have?

Preparation for each class is important. The amount of homework varies from class to class, but typically we would recommend allowing one hour per class for review and completion of homework tasks.

- Where can I obtain more information?

Contact Teruko Iwanaga on info@ejef.co.uk to discuss your course and/or to arrange an online chat or assessment via Zoom.

- How do I apply for a course?

Contact Teruko Iwanaga on info@ejef.co.uk for an application form.

- How can I pay for my course?

After booking your course, we will send you an invoice. We would ask that payment be made before your course starting date.

- What is the cancellation policy?

We require you to notify us of any cancellation at least a week in advance of your course starting date.
